English Version

DECLARATION OF NO ENGINE OIL (FLUID) CONTAINED AND FUME VENTED

To: (Customer / Consignee Name)

We hereby declare the following 6 engine-driven items to be delivered to you as follows. Model details refer to the table in the Chinese version above.

1. No engine oil, fuel, lubricant or any other liquid is filled or included in these products, and no liquid container is packed with them.
2. After assembly and testing, each unit has been drained. No residual oil or liquid remains in the engine, carburetor, fuel tank or crankcase. All test oil has been withdrawn and disposed of as required, and is not shipped together with the products.
3. Each unit has been inspected before shipment and confirmed to be dry and free of liquid, with intact packaging and no leakage.
4. The information stated above is true and accurate and consistent with the actual condition of the goods. We shall bear all responsibilities and losses arising from any inaccuracy of this declaration.

This declaration applies only to the products listed in the table above, and is issued for the purpose of shipment, customs declaration and transportation. It becomes effective upon stamping with the company seal.
